Essays may include family stories; oral histories; genealogy-related blog entries, excerpts from an ancestor’s journal/diary; transcriptions of Bible records or cemetery markers; family histories/traditions and socio-economic background surrounding/affecting an ancestor. Each essay should include how it pertains to its author. Genealogical summaries should be easy to follow. Essay writers are encouraged to use their imagination when deciding on topics. Please bear in mind that essays must have some relevance to New England (see #3 above).

Essays will be evaluated on a variety of criteria, including but not limited to the relevance of the title to the content; page numbers (important); format (logical, readable, interesting narrative or arrangement); New England content (this is of paramount importance); spelling (this counts); sentence structure; grammar, and presentation. All entries will be permanently retained in the CSG Library and will be available to anyone who visits. The winning and selected entries may be published in Connecticut Genealogy News magazine. Authors are asked to sign the Copyright and Ownership Conditions on the entry form.

Winning entries will be formally announced at CSG’s Annual Family History Seminar in October.
Winners will be notified by September 1, 2023. See reverse for Contest Entry Form.
